Saint Louise de Marillac

Saint Louise de Marillac was a very prayerful person. She wanted to serve God. She did this by nursing her husband and caring for her son. After her husband died, she did what she could to help people who were poor, sick, or lonely.

Talk together with your family about different ways you can help people in need. Decide on one project you can work on together during the coming month. Use the following questions to help you plan together what you will do.
